1. Rebuild admin console to get plugin better UI compared to other PSP

The screenshot displays the WooCommerce admin dashboard. The left sidebar contains navigation links for Posts, Braintree Gateway, Media, Pages, Comments, WooCommerce, Dashboard, Orders (12), Coupons, Reports, Settings, Status, Extensions, Products, Analytics, Appearance, Plugins (6), Users, Tools, Settings, and a Collapse menu button. The main content area shows the Jetpack connection screen with a 'Connect Jetpack to activate WooCommerce Services' button. Below this, there are sections for ShipStation and Humm payment gateways. The Humm section includes a 'General Settings' tab with fields for Humm Region (Australia), Test Mode (checked), Merchant ID (30188331), API Key (7E6CF4805F8543E3), and Enable Logging (checked). There is also a 'Banners and Widgets' section with options for Price Widget, Price Widget Advanced Settings, Pre-select Checkout Button, and Pre-select Button Order. The 'Shop Settings' section includes fields for Shop Name (AuPayWooCommerce), Minimum Order Total (20), and Maximum Order Total (1000). The bottom of the screen shows the Plugin Version (2.0.0) and a 'Save changes' button.

4. Add payment status in the admin console to ensure all of transactions process correctly

New Woocommerce Plugin Functions
